 This opinion has been established on the basis of a translation from the original language into the following language _____, which is the language of a translation furnished for the purposes of international search (under Rules 12.3 and 23.1(b)).
2. With regard to any nucleotide and/or amino acid sequence disclosed in the international application and necessary to the claimed invention, this opinion has been established on the basis of:
 - a. type of material
 a sequence listing
 table(s) related to the sequence listing
 - b. format of material in written format
 in computer readable form
 - c. time of filing/furnishing contained in international application as filed.

 furnished subsequently to this Authority for the purposes of search.
3. In addition, in the case that more than one version or copy of a sequence listing and/or table relating thereto has been filed or furnished, the required statements that the information in the subsequent or additional copies is identical to that in the application as filed or does not go beyond the application as filed, as appropriate, were furnished.

WRITTEN OPINION OF THE
INTERNATIONAL SEARCHING AUTHORITY

International application No.
PCT/US05/03158

Box No. V Reasoned statement under Rule 43 bis.1(a)(i) with regard to novelty, inventive step or industrial applicability; citations and explanations supporting such statement

1. Statement

Novelty (N)	Claims 4-9, 12, 14-36	YES
	Claims 1-3, 10-11, 13	NO
Inventive step (IS)	Claims 4-9, 12, 14-36	YES
	Claims 1-3, 10-11, 13	NO
Industrial applicability (IA)	Claims 1-36	YES
	Claims NONE	NO

2. Citations and explanations:

Claims 1-3, 10-11, 13 lack novelty under PCT Article 33(2) as being anticipated by RANGER et al U.S. Patent 6,780,428.

RANGER discloses star-shape polymers having an inner core and an outer shell. The inner core comprises a hydrophobic vinyl compound such as (alkyl)acrylate and (alkyl)acrylamide and derivatives. The outer shell is obtained from the polymerization of hydrophilic vinyl compounds including a vinyl terminated polyethylene glycol, N-vinyl-2-pyrrolidone, N-isopropyl acrylamide and their related derivatives, column 5, lines 19-39. Claimed hyperbranched polymer having core/shell structure and having an active hydrogen-containing group on the outer shell segment is readable in RANGER's invention.

Claims 1-3 and 13 lack novelty under PCT Article 33(2) as being anticipated by KABANOV et al U.S. Patent 6,440,743.

KABANOV discloses star block copolymer having more than two polymer segments linked to a single center, col. 3, lines 45-60 and col. 4, lines 1-5. The star polymer can be used in Gene therapy, col. 10, lines 58-60 and col. 11, lines 34-67. The diamine-linked pluronic copolymer of formula (XVII), column 13, lines 40-55 and col. 14, lines 21-30 is readable in applicants' claims.

Claims 1-3 lack novelty under PCT Article 33(2) as being anticipated by YOUNGS et al U.S. Patent 6,288,197.

YOUNGS discloses dendrimer copolymer comprising a core segment and the dendritic branches with terminal NH₂ groups, Figure 1, col. 4, lines 24-67, col. 5, line 33 and column 15, lines 42-54.

Claims 4-9, 12, 14-36 meet the criteria set out in PCT Article 33(2)-(3), because the prior art does not teach or fairly suggest a hyperbranched polymer having core-shell structure wherein an inner core comprises a network of covalently bound molecular chains comprising ether linkage, the two heteroatoms are each oxygen atoms, the two oxygen atoms are spaced apart by at least four atoms.

Claims 1-36 meet the criteria set out in PCT Article 33(4), and thus has industrial applicability because the subject matter claimed can be made or used in industry.

NOTES TO FORM PCT/ISA/220

These Notes are intended to give the basic instructions concerning the filing of amendments under Article 19. The Notes are based on the requirements of the Patent Cooperation Treaty, the Regulations and the Administrative Instructions under that Treaty. In case of discrepancy between these Notes and those requirements, the latter are applicable. For more detailed information, see also the PCT Applicant's Guide, a publication of WIPO.

In these Notes, "Article," "Rule" and "Section" refer to the provisions of the PCT, the PCT Regulations and the PCT Administrative Instructions, respectively.

INSTRUCTIONS CONCERNING AMENDMENTS UNDER ARTICLE 19

The applicant has, after having received the international search report and the written opinion of the International Searching Authority, one opportunity to amend the claims of the international application. It should however be emphasized that, since all parts of the international application (claims, description and drawings) may be amended during the international preliminary examination procedure, there is usually no need to file amendments of the claims under Article 19 except where, e.g. the applicant wants the latter to be published for the purposes of provisional protection or has another reason for amending the claims before international publication. Furthermore, it should be emphasized that provisional protection is available in some States only (see PCT Applicant's Guide, Volume I/A, Annexes B1 and B2).

The attention of the applicant is drawn to the fact that amendments to the claims under Article 19 are not allowed where the International Searching Authority has declared, under Article 17(2), that no international search report would be established (see PCT Applicant's Guide, Volume I/A, paragraph 296).

What parts of the international application may be amended ?

Under Article 19, only the claims may be amended.

During the international phase, the claims may also be amended (or further amended) under Article 34 before the International Preliminary Examining Authority. The description and drawings may only be amended under Article 34 before the International Preliminary Examining Authority.

Upon entry into the national phase, all parts of the international application may be amended under Article 28 or, where applicable, Article 41.

When ? Within 2 months from the date of transmittal of the international search report or 16 months from the priority date, whichever time limit expires later. It should be noted, however, that the amendments will be considered as having been received on time if they are received by the International Bureau after the expiration of the applicable time limit but before the completion of the technical preparations for international publication (Rule 46.1).

Where not to file the amendments ?

The amendments may only be filed with the International Bureau and not with the receiving Office or the International Searching Authority (Rule 46.2).

Where a demand for international preliminary examination has been/is filed, see below.

How ? Either by cancelling one or more entire claims, by adding one or more new claims or by amending the text of one or more of the claims as filed.

A replacement sheet must be submitted for each sheet of the claims which, on account of an amendment or amendments, differs from the sheet originally filed.

All the claims appearing on a replacement sheet must be numbered in Arabic numerals. Where a claim is cancelled, no renumbering of the other claims is required. In all cases where claims are renumbered, they must be renumbered consecutively (Section 205(b)).

The amendments must be made in the language in which the international application is to be published.

What documents must/may accompany the amendments ?

Letter (Section 205(b)):

The amendments must be submitted with a letter.

The letter will not be published with the international application and the amended claims. It should not be confused with the "Statement under Article 19(1)" (see below, under "Statement under Article 19(1)").

The letter must be in English or French, at the choice of the applicant. However, if the language of the international application is English, the letter must be in English; if the language of the international application is French, the letter must be in French.
